

Why??????

Leverage can come in many forms. Leverage can be your thoughts. People who win are careful with their thoughts, not saying "I can't do that." Or "It's too risky." Or I can't afford it." Instead they say, "How can I do that?" or "How can I reduce my risk?" or "How can I afford it?" Robert T. Kiyosaki

What is it that has given you the desire to create additional income for your family by becoming an entrepreneur? When you think of your why, what is it that has brought you to this point in your life where you have decided to want, strive for, and believe in God that you will achieve? In the space provided, determine your “why???” Is it more time with your family, a new home, ministry, to be your own boss, to send your children to college, or retirement? Take the time to think of your dreams and leverage them. Leverage your thoughts and say I can do that!!!
